Department appreciates receiving Spasik's views on Kennedy-Grady talks and Stikker's thoughtful paper on Berlin negotiations. Since entire range of issues discussed both papers still under close and continuous consideration in Department, and in certain cases idv. Quadripartite group, we are not yet in position comment specifically on various points raised. You may reassure Spasik, however, that all viewpoints being given careful study here.

Re 1959 Western Force Plan, latest Four-Power thinking contained in Washington Working Group Report as is text latest revision of Plan. Exact tactical usage still to be determined.
